Paula Ceroni

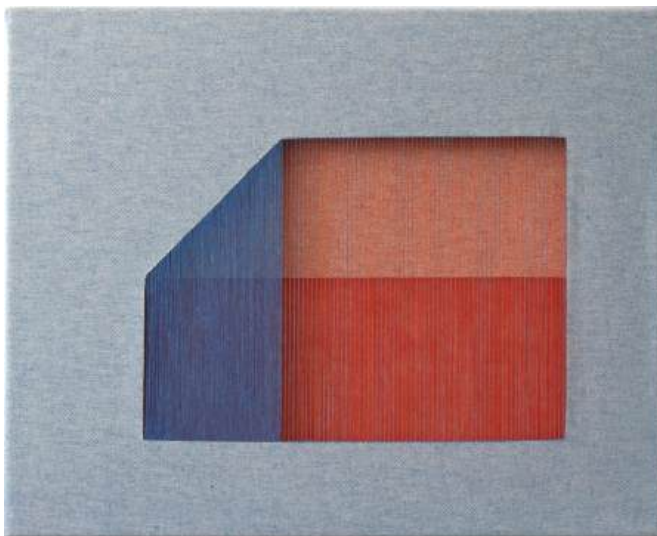

Paula Ceroni Villanelo (1984) is a Chilean artist with a degree in Aesthetics and Education. Her work is characterized by delicacy and refinement in the use of color, combining techniques such as unraveling and meticulous processes that reflect a geometric and abstract imagination. Throughout her career, she has integrated profound reflections on materiality and form into her works.

Ceroni has participated in numerous exhibitions both in Chile and abroad. She has held solo exhibitions in prominent venues such as the University of Talca, the Montecarmelo Cultural Center, the Center of Traditions, and the Gabriela Mistral Cultural Center (GAM). Some of the group exhibitions in which she has participated include the Szombathely Museum Textile Triennial (Hungary), the WTA Textile Biennial (Chile Pavilion at Montecarmelo), and exhibitions at Aninat Gallery, Pedro Avila Gallery (Mexico), Galpão 556 (Brazil), Corporación Cultural de Las Condes, Teatro Solís (Uruguay), CV Gallery, Isabel Croxatto, Artespacio Gallery, and the San Francisco Art Institute.

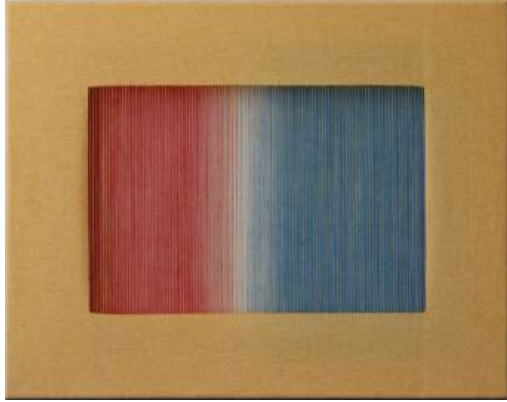

Throughout her career, she has received various awards and distinctions, including second place in the V Lo Barnechea Art Contest (2021), third place in the Artefacto Contest, and fourth place in the Municipal Arte Joven de Santiago Award (2019). Additionally, her work is part of important collections, including those of Maya Castro de Westcott, the Arturo López Pérez Foundation (FALP), Teatro del Lago in Frutillar, and the Padre Hurtado Museum.
